HUNDREDS MADE HOMELESS AS BIG STORM SWEEPS BAY STATE

HAVOC WROUGHT BY BIG STORM AS IT SWEEP FITCHBURG

DEATH TOLL IS PLACED AT FIVE

From the unusual bad storm that broke thousands of windows throughout the city, while the great houses of Alfred H. Woodland on Glen street, Melrose, were practically destroyed, with a loss of $100,000, the great houses in the center were badly damaged.

TRAINS FLAGGED.

Officials of the Boston & Maine Railroad are congratulating themselves over the narrow escape of two of their passenger trains when a big tree was blown across the right of way at North Avenue station. Two trains were due at the time the tree fell across the tracks. Not Cornelius Tompkins and John Bates, employees, managed to flag them.

At Johnston in Rhode Island the lightning killed Angelo, Russell, eleven years old, as he sat near a window in his home. Six other persons who were in the room at the time were injured. The bolt struck the boy back of the ear and passed over the entire body.

Oliver Neale, twenty-eight years old, a farmer, died at his home in Fitchburg while working in his father's field near Orange, Connecticut. Lightning struck him on the head and he was killed in the Foxon Park section, where he can again be seen. The boy had been fishing and was struck by the lightning when he endeavored to escape from the storm.

FARMERS HARD HIT.

In the vicinity of Peabody farmers suffered losses that will amount to thousands of dollars. There was little hail in this section, as the wind and rain did most of the damage. The crops on many farms were destroyed.

'SALAD KING'S' SON THRASHES WIFE'S ESCORT

At Kingston the home of Arthur Phinney on Rony Brook Hill was destroyed by fire which started when lightning struck the building. The home of Henry Hammond also was destroyed. A New York man was struck by lightning and set on fire, but was saved from fatal injury by the firemen. At Haverhill the ball stage was the scene of a fight. The man was found lying on the ground, but was not injured.

GREENHOUSES WRECKED.

The Bradford Academy suffered heavy loss from the storm. More than 400 panes of glass being shattered in the building. Every greenhouse in the vicinity of Haverhill suffered heavy loss while photograph galleries were badly damaged.

At Winchelsea, lightning struck the home of Frank Dunbar at No. 24 Myrtle Valley. The house was struck in the roof and setting fire to the house. Firemen were called to the fire with all haste.

righteous Wall Street cliff dwellers. The old party leaders on both sides of Minnesota tell you that they won't even make a campaign against La Follette. "No throwing money away."

Not fewer than eight states will go to the fighting Wisconsin Senator.

WATCH THE RAILROADS

gradually grow into big gor and bigger units. The Pennsylvania road is said to be buying the New York, New Haven & Hartford road, sometimes called "The Man from Jerusalem" because it also fell among thieves.

Mr. Rea of the Pennsylvania will put the New York road on its feet if he gets it.

Stock exchange gossip says that Henry Ford is trying to buy the St. Paul. That probably is NOT true. Ford says: "There is nothing in railroads. Automobile will do the carrying."

MRS. EDWARD ALLEN, of Gloucester, N. J., twenty years old, with two babies to support, believes that women have the hard end of life. And she's right.

Her father and her husband were electrocuted on Wednesday for murder. The insurance company paid her $100, but that is not enough to bury the two men. She decides to keep the $100 for the two babies and let the State bury the two men, where it belongs them. Wise young woman. Too many widows impoverish themselves having fine husbands for unworthy husbands.

SCENES OF DESTRUCTION IN PATH OF CYCLONIC GALE WHICH CAUSED TERROR IN BAY STATE CITY. At left, view of the Park Hill Mill in Fitchburg after the tempest had torn away the roof and top floor of the four-story brick building. Part of the wreckage was hurled against the walls of nearby buildings, causing additional damage. Fitchburg was the center of the storm. At right, some on Middle street, Fitchburg, where big trees were uprooted by the gale and blown over the top of a house. Throughout the city scores of other trees were destroyed, the debris making many of the streets impassable for hours. (Photo by International News Reel.)

GUY W. CURRIER CLEARED OF SCANDAL

Hub Lawyer Was Wrongly Involved in Coakley Trial, Revenue Chief Says

Mention of Guy W. Currier's name in the Coakley trial was unfortunate and unwelcome for Commissioner of Internal Revenue Dr. H. Blair said.

Currier is an attorney, living at No. 6 Mount Vernon place, Allen R. River, an auditor in the bureau of internal revenue, testified in such a way during the Coakley trial that his testimony was generally misunderstood, to the disadvantage of Mr. Currier. The latter appealed to Commissioner Blair, River's chief, setting forth that he had been wronged.

Blair's testimony, it seems to be, was of doubtful propriety, he wrote. "The fact is I did have a client who was being blackmailed by a woman I don't know. I felt inconsistent and unwilling to handle the case. I sent him to Mr. Coakley. Coakley got rid of the blackmailer and charged a moderate fee. I took no part in it and received no fee."

Even if River's version of this thing were the true one it was of no value in prosecuting Coakley. Its only effect was to broadcast a scandalous charge.

In reply Blair said: "An investigation disclosed that River repeated the story as it was told to him, and the further fact that it was not true. It is regrettable that he should be so misled by River's imputed to the misstatement of another person."

"The statement was only hearsay and appears to me to be incomplete and misleading in any case. While made in good faith by River, it appears to have done him an injustice which is deeply regretted by him and the officers of this bureau."

RICH STUDENT ON HOMEYMOON WITH TYRANT WHO HATED RIVAL

HE PAYS FOR LOVE'S JOURNEY

Son Uses Check Parent Gave Him to Get Away From Feminine Advances

A Congress street stenographer has accomplished what the most noted beauties of two continents failed to do—win the heart of Erion Leith, wealthy society child of Boston, New York, London and Paris.

The young woman whose charms won for her the late Lancaster, Md. woman was Miss Margaret Leith, daughter of Mrs. M. J. Leith, of Boston, who a few days ago employed as a stenographer by the brokerage firm of Baker & Young.

Leith, a graduate of Dartmouth College and the French Sorbonne, is now taking a postgraduate course at Harvard. It is the son of Dr. William Leith of Lancaster, and she has long been a social favorite, both in this country and abroad.

MYSTERY CRANE.

Many maidens have laid siege to young Leith's heart, but when he stepped into the Congress street brokerage house to transact some business, several months ago, and beheld Miss Leith at work at her typewriter, it simply meant that Leith's reign as a social lion was over.

The student lost no time, once he knew that he had been tagged by Dan Cypel. He managed to escape his invitation to a social affair given by the employees of the brokerage house and was duly presented to Miss Leith. After a whirlwind courtship he proposed and was accepted.

JILTED FIANCÉ.

A check bearing an amount in four figures had been presented to Leith by the father, for the purpose of spending a vacation at some spot where the son would be subjected to feminine advances.

This check is being used by the honey-mooners.

The couple were married in Trinity Church and are now on their honeymoon.

The bride is one of a family of four noted for their beauty. Inidentally, the bride, it might be mentioned, was engaged to marry at the time young Leith stepped into the scene. The New Hampshire student simply ruined the engagement of her father, however, and before she knew what it was about, Miss Leith had returned the ring to her former admirer and accepted the one Leith pursued for her.

STORMS CAN'T STOP AIR MAIL SERVICE.

Omaha, July 18 (A.P.)—Despite severe weather, the air mail service over the United States transcontinental air mail route continued on schedule today.

From July 1 to 18, said Carl F. Egge, general superintendent of the air mail service today.

All mail planes, during that period, flew 80,000 miles, of which 10,000 were covered at night over the 8,000 miles of the air mail route between Chicago and Chicago.

"Although six of the fifteen days were stormy," he said, "but a trip—no single mile—was defeated."

BILLION INCREASE IN WHEAT VALUES.

Chicago, July 18.—Upwards of a billion dollars has been added to the speculative values of the 1924 grain crops of America and the Canadian Northwest in recent weeks as a result of the thirty cents a bushel increase in wheat prices.

The increase in wheat prices in the United States and the forty-two cents a bushel jump in Canada, which have pushed crop prices to new records since 1918.

AMERICAN LIFE

MANY MORE ENROLL FOR GUARDS AT HUB BEACHES

The first tryouts for the Boston American Life Saving Corps were held today at Magazine Beach, Cambridge, where Captain Jack Wallace of the Red Cross, with a bunch of expert assistants, began singling out the best of the volunteers.

SAMOSSET CLUB ENROLLS

Arrangements are being made for the Samosset Club members, who have agreed the American to set hours when they can take the Red Cross swimming and tests. The Red Cross life savers who have volunteered also will be asked to confer with Captain Wallace in a few days, after which their names will be announced as members of the Boston American corps.

The Boston Red Cross Life Saving Corps, Samosset Club Corps No. 1, has volunteered in a body to affiliate with the Boston American corps.

The Samosset Club members, whose quarters are located on the Charles River at West Boston, voted unanimously to volunteer when the idea was suggested at their monthly meeting by Captain Arthur P. Smith, who, Captain Sullivan also offered his services as instructor and examiner for other volunteers.

The corps is comprised of John F. Vander, president; Ernest T. Plummer, vice-president; Andrew R. Plummer, secretary-treasurer; Captain Arthur P. Sullivan, Dr. Charles L. Knight, medical adviser; Arthur Farnum, first mate; Richard T. Moore, second mate; William Cook, examiner; J. Clifford Page, Forest T. White, Albert H. Houghton.

The gift of regulation life guard bathing suits by the Hancock Park-ville Company, athletic outfitters, to the first fifty count-downs accepted as members of the corps has made a great hit with the volunteers.

MANY GIRLS VOLUNTEER

Girls are sending in their applications from all over Greater Boston. Some of them already are Red Cross life savers and welcome additions to the American's growing list. The application blank has been shortened, but volunteers are requested to note on it whether they are qualified life savers.

Stories of letters have been received in addition to applications from volunteers, praising the American for providing Greater Boston swimmers with an opportunity of learning the expert methods of carrying helpless persons in the water and resuscitation.

See Page 2 for Life Saving Application Blank.

WOMAN TELLER TRIES OIL GAME; SHE'S IN JAIL

Cleveland, July 18.—Mrs. Marie Perrin played at marriage and man long. The combination nearly broke her. After her release from St. Luke's Hospital she was warned to stay away from men, man long and loose. She did.

But some one left a paper on the seat beside her in the trailer one day and she read that Rockefeller, and a few others had made quite a lot of money playing a game called oil. So she got a job as teller with a bank and started to give this new game a try. According to the official of the bank, however, every time she bought a couple of shares to play the market, their assets were decreased by five or six much.

Finally when the market in their accounts amounted to something like fifteen, they decided it was time to give over philosophy and walk in the count.

Last month Mrs. Perrin was taken from her apartment in St. Luke's Hospital after an alleged attempt to commit suicide. She told friends of her time of her speculation.

After being released from the hospital she again began to play the oil game.

Mrs. Perrin is in the county jail.

ACCUSES FEAR AMERICAN ON DEBT BOARD

Paris, July 18.—(A.P.)—Telephone messages from London to the French foreign office today said there was a good prospect for the adoption of the compromise proposal made by Colonel James A. Logan, Jr., on the question of the appointment of an American member to sit with the reparations commission in dealing with Germany in the Doreen plan and the procedure for the application of penalties in case a default was declared.

London, July 18.—(A.P.)—The allied conference on the application of the Dawes reparations report got down to business today. Frank H. Kellogg, the American Ambassador, Premier Herriot of France, President Thomas of Belgium, and Finance Minister Dr. Stieritz of Italy, took breakfast with Prime Minister MacDonald and later remained in conference with him for more than an hour.

The question of representation of the British Dominions on the reparations board has been settled. It was announced by J. H. Thomas, the colonial secretary in the House of Commons.

It had been agreed he said, that the representative of any Dominion so desiring, including India, should become a member of the British Empire Delegation to the conference under the joint system.

Under this system, the colonial delegates are designated one at a time in approved rotation to sit as a member of the British delegation.

JAIL FOR POLICE HEAD IN ACUSHNET

New Bedford, July 18.—Constable Henry J. Labadie, nominal police head of Acushnet, was sentenced to six months in the house of correction by Judge Frank A. Milken, when he was adjudged guilty of a statutory offense.

When Emily Kuntz arrived at the same time as Labadie and who was charged with keeping Kuntz with intent to sell, was sentenced to two months and fined $100. Both appeared.

EMPLOYER RETURNS WITH DEPORTED GIRL

New York, July 18.—When Miss Anna Hays, trained nurse and companion to Mrs. Mary Schuchter, a member of one of the oldest German-American families in the city, was deported on the ground that she might become a public charge, her employer, highly indignant, decided to accompany her back to Germany. The two sailed on the steamship Westphalia.

ON BONUS

American's Bureau is Always Ready to Solve Problems for Veterans
Veterans of the World War entitled to a Federal bonus need not exhaust themselves by coming into the city for advice concerning bonus application for adjusted compensation.
All you've got to do is to get a few lines to the American-Adventurers' Bureau, 170 North Street, and a qualified free of charge policy in correct revenue and their dependence.
Bonus application of the American Bureau starts at your disposal. If you are prepared concerning bonus problems, tell it to us. All mailed inquiries will be promptly answered.
Of course, a personal call at this bureau is always welcome, but if you can't come—write.
Here are some questions and answers.
A. J. McC. Cambridge.
Q.—I enlisted May 25, 1917, was drafted abroad June 22, 1917, went overseas after the armistice and received an ordinary discharge Aug. 31, 1919. I received for $40 bonus and the $100 State bonus. Am I entitled to the new bonus? How much will it amount to?
A.—If your service was on board ship, but not on a receiving ship, you will be entitled to a credit of $12.5 a day and $1 a day for home service, after deducting the first 60 days of home service. From your credit of service, you no doubt will be entitled to receive the maximum credit of $200, when turned in a 20-year paid-up insurance certificate will have a face value of about $250.
A. D. NEWPORT, R. I.
Q.—Please tell me what the amount of my insurance will be? I enlisted April 2, 1917, went overseas July 5, 1917, returned December 12, 1918, and was discharged March 12, 1919.
A.—After deducting the first 40 days of home service there remains about 113 days of such service for which you will receive $1 a day. Your overseas service amounts to about 162 days at $12.5 a day. This makes a total credit of about $216, when turned into a 20-year paid-up policy will have a face value of about $260.
J. S. NARRAGANSETT, P. R. I.
Q.—I am a veteran of the World War and served during the entire period at home. About what will my policy be worth in 20 years?
A.—You will be entitled to receive the maximum credit of $200, if you performed no overseas service, and the insurance certificate, which will be issued to you will have a face value of about $230, payable at the end of 20 years.
J. L. HARTFORD, CT.
Q.—I enlisted in the Army November 18, 1917, and received an honorable discharge May 8, 1919. Please tell me how much my insurance will be.
A.—You are entitled to a credit of $1 a day for each day of home service after deducting the first sixty days, plus $12.5 a day for each day of overseas service. This sum, when multiplied by two and one-half, will give you the approximate face value of the 20-year paid-up insurance certificate which you will receive.
L. F. W. TURNERS FALLS, MASS.
Q.—I am a veteran of the World War, having served from December 17, 1917, to June 28, 1919, performing both home and overseas service. What must I do to file my papers for the bonus?
A.—You must obtain a bonus blank from any post office or American Legion, put together with an instruction sheet for filling it out, send over the instructions carefully and follow them in filling out the blank.
C. H. N., Methuen.
Q.—I enlisted June 18, 1916, and was under call of the President from June 22, 1916, to November 14, 1918, and was honorably discharged May 12, 1917, no account of disability. Please tell me if I am entitled to the bonus.
A.—Under the bonus law any veteran who was a member of the military or naval forces of the United States at any time after April 6, 1917, and before November 12, 1918, and who was for more than sixty days in active service during that period, is entitled to make application for the bonus. As you only served thirty-eight days during the period you are not entitled to any bonus.
A. J. D., Manchester, N. H.
Q.—I enlisted in the Army April 7, 1917, called to active duty July 23, 1917, served until November 5, 1917, when I sailed for France and returned in April, 1919, being discharged on the 29th day of that month. How much am I entitled to receive?
A.—Your length of service will entitle you to the maximum credit under the law of $200, which will make the face value of your twenty-year paid-up bonus certificate about $250.
L. D., Manchester, N. H.
Q.—I enlisted June 17, 1918, and was honorably discharged January 23, 1919, performing all home service. How much will my bonus amount to?
A.—The total amount of your credit for home service after deducting the first sixty days is $160, which, when turned into a twenty-year paid-up policy, will amount to about $227.

U.S. OLYMPIC STARS TO RUN IN ENGLISH GAMES TOMORROW

BRITISH STRONG IN DELAYS

By LAWSON HEDDERSON
Head Coach of American Olympic Team of 1924

London, July 18.—A touch of the typical English weather interfered with our training, but it is long enough to have our athletes in the United Kingdom games tomorrow.

The British are "battered" in the relay, shifting teams in an effort to beat us. They are concentrating on the middle run, and have entered Harold Abrahams and John Kinsman for the 400 yard relay. I think I shall have Edie Lohr for the quarter and Alf Lane for the half.

Our team of George Hill of Penn. Jackson school of the New York A. C., Charles Robinson of Penn. and Allan Hefrich of Penn. State, does not look as good as the British array on paper.

BRITISH KEEN IN QUARTER
The British are keen in the quarter mile relay, entering Abrahams, Lohr, Kinsman and P. C. Newton. I think I shall have Edie Lohr for the quarter and Alf Lane for the half.

The only man of our knowledge team that will run for us in this race is Alf Lane of the University of Cambridge of Philadelphia. The others, Charles Robinson, John Kinsman, and Charles Robinson of Penn. are faster than our Olympic relay representatives, but they are in the team.

This team probably will not match as fast time as our Olympic team, which did wonderfully in running across the water.

Tigers Have Power to Push Yanks to End

By NICK PLATLEY

PLENTY of pitching and a sustained punch mean everything in the final third of a baseball campaign, and thinking that little thing for two forces one to respect these Detroit Tigers, who will be in our midst until they perform a double header at the Fenway tomorrow.

For Ty Cobb, who has been playing twenty years in the big show, not seventeen as we remarked the other day, has, after three years of effort, finally collected a machine that has all the earmarks of a great finisher.

The club, a natural hitting outfit, didn't slug much in the early months, but it has started to point now, when home counts heavily. Ty's pitchers, who were flatter in spring, have matured amazingly into shape with the real arrival of summer.

These players are again as fit as the children could work in turn, with a couple of very good bats on the sidelines for reserve and rescue purposes. That sort of a box layout would make any club a first contender.

NOR a month now, the Detroit threat has been lingering close to the tip of the iceberg. The team has gradually been getting flattened out, and it is now headed in the proper direction. The Tigers, who have been coming in every city in the league, have won seven of the nine games in Philadelphia, a drop-out of the plate in the sixth inning, and the Yankees have a real prototypical show when the Tigers get their best work.

MASTER COBB has been particularly fortunate with a couple of his big players. Ed Wolfe, who was graduated from the College in June, is a regular member of the pitching staff. He is a huge left hander who has been coming on in the last few weeks, and is now being put in the rotation for the first time.

Jack Hyde failed to reach the championship of the Chicago Cubs, but he is a regular member of the pitching staff. He is a huge left hander who has been coming on in the last few weeks, and is now being put in the rotation for the first time.

From his letter, dated July 1, 1924, Momosuke Fukuzawa, Esq., President of Great Consolidated Electric Power Company, Limited, summarizes as follows

The Great Consolidated Electric Power Company, Limited, is one of the two largest producers of electric power in Japan. The company's properties include twelve generating plants with a total capacity of 255,300 k. w., of which 154,800 k. w. are hydroelectric. It also has extensive transmission facilities throughout the country. The company's principal substations, etc., constructed at a total cost to May 31, 1924, as shown by the Company's books of approximately $70,000,000. The company is primarily a wholesaler of power selling its output under long term contracts to cities, retail companies, industrial developing companies, traction companies and other consumers. Its principal markets are a population of more than 60 million people in the vicinity of Tokyo, Yokohama, Osaka, Nagoya, Kyoto and many other cities and towns. This district has an intensive industrial development and electrical power is of exceptional importance in its daily life and business because of the high costs of coal and oil, very little mineral oil being found in Japan. The demand for electricity is increasing rapidly and the company occupies a position of great importance in this district and the company is so favored a position to deliver power at low costs that the volume of its future business should be limited only by its productive and transmission capacity. The company's properties are modern and have been developed in accordance with construction with the most approved American practice. Machinery and equipment are largely of American manufacture.

These bonds will be the direct obligation of the company and will be secured, in the opinion of counsel, by closed first mortgage lien created under the laws of Japan, on the three largest, newest, and most important of the company's hydro electric properties with auxiliary steam reserve plant, substations and transmission lines, representing an aggregate con-to February 29, 1924, as certified by Meyers, Thebo, Starr & Auderton, Incorporated, in excess of $31,000,000 or more than twice the amount of these bonds. The mortgaged properties have a hydro-electric capacity of 106,700 k. w., or over two-thirds of the company's total hydro-electric capacity and can be operated as a complete and independent unit capable of delivering its entire output to the Osaka district and to the Tokyo Electric Light Company for the Tokyo-Yokohama district. The Imperial Japanese Government, which under the laws of Japan grants all concessions for water rights and power licenses, has consented to the mortgaging of these properties to secure these bonds.

Net earnings available for interest, depreciation and other reserves, for the year ended May 31, 1924, as certified by Messrs. Harold Bell, Taylor, Bird and Co., Chartered Accountants, were $3,389,197. During the year the company's productive capacity increased from 60,600 k. w. to 212,400 k. w., reflecting a generated output for the year of only

59% of that sold under contract for the twelve months ending May 31, 1925, for the production of which the company will have an ample capacity. Computing income and operating expense on the basis of actual results for the six months ended May 31, 1924, and output on the basis of existing contracts, net earnings available for interest, depreciation and reserves will be

On account of reduced operating costs due to a greater percentage of hydro-electric output, the company estimates that actual earnings will exceed the above amounts in each year by more than $800,000. Maximum annual interest
